Corey,

Sorry about getting back to you so late on this. My Bytespeed rep was out to a conference and then I dropped the ball when he got back with me.

Windows 10 Pro
Intel Core i5-6400
8GB RAM
120GB SSD
DVDRW
5yr Warranty
$924 each ~~+~~ 209.99 for office = $ 1,133.99

We can bump up the storage space, but 120GB should be enough since you guys are good about saving things to the server.

Can add Office 2016 to it too. It's worth mentioning volume licensing though. Do you have a CDW-G rep that you regularly work with? We can get a quote from them for volume licensing of Office products and as long as you're current on your subscription you'll always have access to the latest version of Office for less than it would be to keep buying a new license for every new machine you get. I have a guy I use for a couple schools, so if you don't already have a rep I can see what he can put together for us.

I'd get it from Newegg - cheaper over there right now. Likely for a limited time.

$209.99 - <https://www.newegg.com/Product/Product.aspx?Item=N82E16832588636&ignorebbr=1>
